

Social Personality and Health Network Listserv Information (Updated September, 2010)

This SPH Network listserv provides a forum for discussing and sharing knowledge relevant to social/personality psychology and health. The list is open to all members of the SPH Network and members may post messages at any time and all members are welcome and encouraged to contribute. The SPH listserv is a valuable tool for keeping up with activities and issues in the field, and provides a discussion forum for scientific and professional topics and a means for exchanging information (job listings, conference updates, etc.).

Posting Messages: Members may post at any time by sending their e-mail message to the following address: listserv@sphnetwork.org. This is a non-moderated listserv. As such, messages sent to this address will immediately be sent to all listserv members. The rules and guidelines for posting on the listserv are given below and are also available on the SPH Network webpage: <http://sphnetwork.org/information-exchange.html>. Questions about posting on the listserv should be sent to Geers@sphnetwork.org.

Unsubscribing from the Listserv: Members may unsubscribe from the list at any time by sending a message to Geers@sphnetwork.org and typing SIGNOFF SPH LISTSERV in the subject line of the message.

Listserv Usage Guidelines: Because this is a non-moderated list, it is up to each member to monitor her or his own posting content and listserv actions. Below are some guidelines for the listserv.

1. The list may not be used as a forum for illegal purposes, including but not limited to defamation, violation of intellectual property laws, violation of antitrust or unfair competition laws or violation of criminal laws.
2. Do not intentionally interfere with or disrupt other group members, network services, or network equipment. This includes distribution of unsolicited advertisement or chain letters, propagation of computer worms and viruses, and use of the network to make unauthorized entry to any other machine accessible via the listserv.
3. The list may not be used for electioneering (e.g., campaigning, solicitation of support), promotion of political actions (e.g., boycotts, letters suggesting legislation), fundraising activities, actions advancing personal or another's professional gain, advertising professional services, or for any other personal or monetary profit/gain or other commercial purposes. Do not post messages for which the primary purpose is to advance the business or financial interests of any person or entity, or otherwise to promote a financial transaction for the benefit of the author directly or indirectly.

Examples of prohibited communications include advertisements for products or services and direct solicitations of listserv members to purchase products or services. Examples of messages that may be of financial benefit to listserv members but are not prohibited because they do not result in the financial benefit of the author include news of job listings or position openings or discussion of professionally-related products or services where the listserv member conveying the information is not in the business of selling the products or services.

4. Do not post messages containing information that is defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal. Please keep messages constructive, supportive, and collegial.

Removal from the list:

The SPH listserv administrator, acting on behalf of the SPH Network, reserves the right to remove members from the list who violate its usage.
